

Advisory Council Profile

Leigh Verrall

ISO 44001 Scheme Manager, BSI

Leigh has been a client manager at the British Standards Institution for nearly 30 years assessing a wide variety of clients for their quality, environmental and business continuity systems. She became involved with the collaborative working standard in 2011 and this is now her main area of activity as she took on the role of BSI Scheme Manager for ISO 44001:2017 in 2017.
